

Entry Form

Name of (proposed) business:

Type of (proposed) business:

Postal and street address:

Owner 1 of the Company (or proposal):

Owner 2 of the company (or proposal):

Email Address:

Tel Number:

Fax Number:

Cell Number:

Company Website/ facebook page (if available):

Please provide a short CV or profile of the Management with a focus on entrepreneurial experience, corporate experience and applicable technology experience.

Rules:

- The business plan has to be prepared by individuals/s in their personal capacity.
- The business should not have been in existence for longer than 6 months.
- Submission deadline for Sanlam Innovation Works Project is 19 February 2018. No late submissions will be accepted.
- Announcement of the finalists will be on the 28 February 2018. Only the top 5 participants will be contacted.
- By entering this competition the identities of participants and the content of the business plan submitted are considered public domain and accordingly, can be used by Sanlam, NUST and NBII for marketing and public relations purposes only.
- The project is open to all members of the public aged 18 and older.
- Entrants should be Namibian citizens.
- Include copy of I.D.
- No business plans will be returned.

Please submit your business plan and entry form to: The Innovation Village 1-3 Gluck street Windhoek West or e-mail: ekavihuha@nust.na

Do you have what it takes to become Namibia's answer to Warren Buffet?

Are you an innovative, budding entrepreneur? Do you dream of running your own multi-million dollar operation one day? Do you have a solid, feasible business plan? Sanlam Innovation Works, an initiative by Sanlam and its partners, Namibia University of Science and Technology and Namibia Business Innovation Institute, might have the big break you have been waiting for. Submit your business plan to ekavihuha@nust.na and stand a chance of getting funding for up to N$50 000, as well as mentoring and nurturing from business experts.

